HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST FROM DIFFERENT SECTIONS

George Kittredge recently saw a bear in his pasture in West Danville.

The Baptist and Congregational churches of Derby have voted to unite for one year.

Grasshoppers are doing much damage to grain, especially oats, in the vicinity of Vergennes.

Essex, Underhill and Williston are now sugar card towns, the system going into effect there Thursday.

Under the will of Mrs. Ernestine M. Kettle of Weston, Mass., the New England Kurn Hart House benefit to the extent of $10,000.

The Cascadine house at Royalton is now in the possession of the Interstate Trust Company Mortgage, with John E. Waterman as caretaker.

The large barn on the Armon Osgood farm in Westford was struck by lightning Tuesday night and destroyed by fire. Many tons of hay were lost.

Rev. Benjamin Wheeler of Calais, 87 years old, took part in the church services at South Woodbury last Sunday. He is active and his faculties are well preserved.

Donald Brush of Herkimer, N. Y., has been engaged by the Montpelier school board as acting principal while Principal Frederic Edwards is in Y. M. C. A. work in France.

During an electrical storm that passed over Vergennes the first of the week, three horses belonging to Ernest Beghuni were killed. They sought shelter under an oak tree.

Repairs are being made on the La-molle river bridge near South Hero, the closing of which had caused some feeling, and within a few days travel will be resumed over it.

Mrs. E. S. Brigham of St. Albans has received a telegram from Edward Merchant, formerly of that city, hearing news that he has arrived at Hoboken, N. J., from France.

Roy W. Pease of Concord, N. H., has been chosen to succeed F. R. Churchill as agricultural agent of Chittenden county. Mr. Churchill has resigned to enter an officers' training school.

Mrs. Maggie Harris Odell of Pownall fell on a rock while berrying on "Lincoln ridge" last Friday and broke her leg. She was brought from the mountain by two other berry pickers.

Charles W. Danforth, who was working with lumbermen on the Dewey farm in Royalton, was seriously injured a few days ago by a falling tree. He has a broken rib and other injuries.

James McDonnell of White River Junction recently picked from his garden a cabbage the head of which measured three feet and four inches in circumference and weighed 13½ pounds.

A barn on the George Francis place in Wells was destroyed by fire one night recently, and with it a Chevrolet car belonging to Warren Ballard, who had been using the barn as a garage.

Miss Alice Bancroft of Calais, a teacher in Lyndon academy for several years, has resigned and left this week for Camp Lee, Va., where she is to be an assistant in the commissary department.

Mrs. Bertha King of Jericho, who attempted to shoot W. C. Brooks of that place last Sunday, after a short hearing was ordered committed to the state hospital at Waterbury for observation as to her sanity.

Rev. Hugh David Jones, rector of Grace Episcopal church in West Rutland, completes his duties there next Sunday and the following Sunday begins his pastorate of the Episcopal church in Bellows Falls.

Frank McGill of East Burke found his driving horse in his pasture with one hip shot to pieces and had to kill it and B. F. Warner of the same place found his pasture driving horse dead in the pasture Thursday.

W. Grant Thomas of Burlington was fined $10 and costs of $19.85 in Middlebury, pleading guilty to violating the headlight law. The case was the result of a collision early Sunday morning with the Frary car in Middlebury.

Edmund McGowan of Burlington was arrested at the home of Wynn "Tom" Brace at The Blocks Aug. 7 after the arrival of the Routes Point train, charged with the larceny of $20 from A. Rossen on the train.

Harry Smith, a yeoman known as "Canada Blackie," George Blanchard and Frank Sordiff, all three of whom made their escape from the house of correction at Rutland a year ago, but later were apprehended and returned, are to be prosecuted to the extent of the law.

Miss Dorothy Amor, who left Woodstock June 25 to enter reconstruction work in the hospital service of the Canadian army, is now located at the Vancouver General hospital, military annex. Her military warrant designates her as a first lieutenant in the Canadian army.

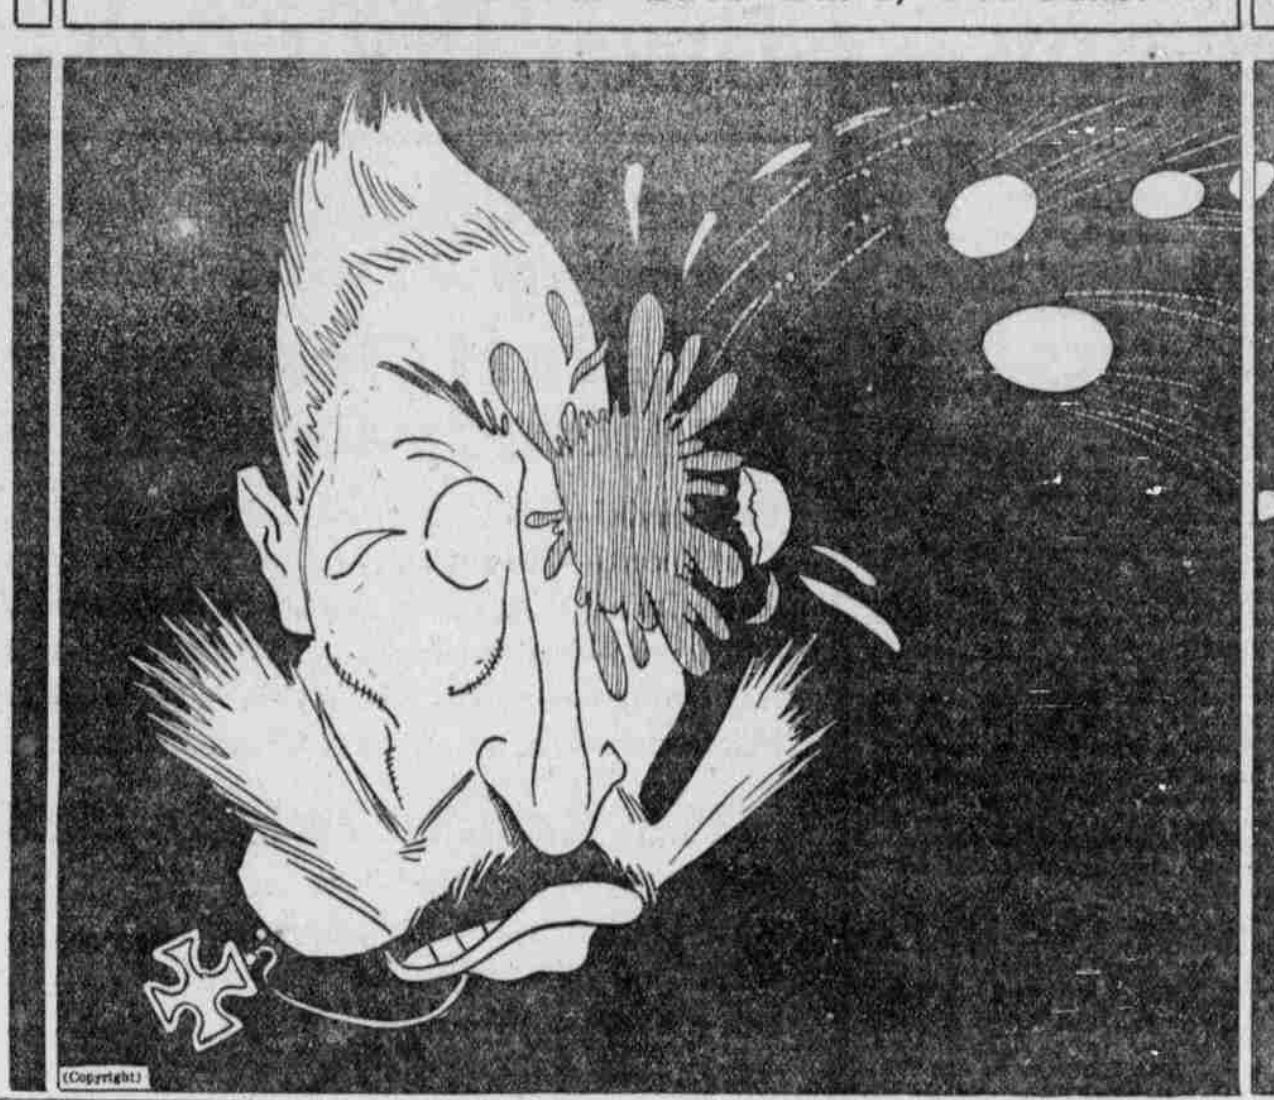

The three barns on the old Pratt place in East Burke now owned by Mr. Rexford were burned Thursday afternoon, burning his wagon, harness and farming tools. Mr. Rexford had a few tons of hay left in the field. It is thought that the fire must have started from the heating of green hay.

Audrey Marion Whitcomb, two-and-a-half-year-old daughter of Walter H. Whitcomb of East Charleston, is in a serious condition at Brightlight hospital in St. Johnsbury, her whole body a mass of burns which she received when her mother was washing and while she was out of the room the child sat down in a pail of scalding water.

Cadet Philip M. Whitney of Northfield, who is a cadet at West Point, recently made the highest score in rifle shooting on the target range, winning the medal for his class. Official announcement has been made that the class of 1921, of which Cadet Whitney is a member, will be graduated June 11, 1920, a year in advance of the scheduled time.

The Vermont Wheel club of Brattleboro is about to begin a campaign for new members to take the places of those who have entered the service. The club, which is 33 years old and fills an important place in the community life, now has 27 names on the honor roll and as they are exempted from dues there has been a shrinkage of $486 in the past year in the club's revenue.

When the war began there were 26 barbers employed in St. Johnsbury. Now there are only 13 and only two shops where more than one barber is at work. St. Johnsbury has contributed over 200 men in the army and navy and other branches of the government and over 100 more have left town for work in munition factories and plants engaged in war work.

There are 200 men at Camp Ethan Allen on Block House point, North Hero, for training. The equipment includes 11 saddle horses and an auto truck besides every convenience of a cantonment. Several new buildings have been erected and the camp increases in years to come more will be put up, where a few years ago the site was a cow pasture. Block House point has historic significance as the site of a French fort or block house.

Raymond Kincaid has written his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Kincaid of Fair Haven, from France that he has been gassed and injured his eyes, but that he was improving. They have also received word that their son, Robert, who was injured in the same battle, July 15, was in a hospital and that he would be at home to see them. Nothing of the nature of his wounds was announced, but it is supposed they are such as to prevent his further action in battle.

Richard Quinn of West Rutland and Clarence Shedd of Rutland City, who have just returned to their home after a voyage overseas, visited while in France the grave of Pvt. Grant Hill Cutler, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Cutler of Rutland, that city's first soldier to die in action. The cemetery where he is buried is about three miles from Brest and the graves are tenderly cared for by French girls. Richard Quinn brought back to Pvt. Cutler's parents one of the American flags which decorated his grave.

Bethel, Royalton, Barnard and Stockbridge have inaugurated an interchangeable sugar card system and the plan is working out well. Rochester's local food administrator refused to unite with the other towns, making the only hitch in the scheme. For this reason Rochester people who are accustomed to purchase all their groceries in Bethel, including

ORDER OF PUBLICATION

ARTHUR D. ROBINSON VS. VIOLA ROBINSON

Whereas, Arthur D. Robinson of the city of Barre, in the county of Washington, in the state of Vermont, has this day filed in the office of the clerk of the county court, for said county his libel for the divorce against Viola Robinson, setting forth in substance that he was, on the 7th day of February, 1918, lawfully married to the said Viola Robinson, and that the libellant has resided in the county of Washington for the past year; and has faithfully performed all the marriage obligations incumbent upon him; that on or about the 1st day of March, 1918, the said libellee deserted him without just cause and for three consecutive years and ever since the first day of March, 1918, refused to live with and cohabit with him; that the libellant has treated him with intolerable severity and has on many and diverse times committed the crime of adultery with many and diverse persons to the libellant unknown.

And praying that the bonds of matrimony between him and the said libellee be dissolved, and that he be granted a bill of divorce. And it appearing that the said libellee is without this state, and that no summons can be served on her.

IT IS ORDERED that the libellant notify the libellee of the pendency of said petition and summon her to appear at the first day of the county court to be held at Montpelier within and for the county of Washington, on the second Tuesday in March, 1919, on the first day thereof, and answer to the same, by causing the substance of said petition and this order to be published three weeks successively in the Barre Daily Times, a newspaper printed at Barre, Vermont, a newspaper printed at Barre, Vermont, in said county, the last publication to be at least six weeks previous to the commencement of said term.

Dated at Montpelier, in said county, this 25th day of July, 1918.

LEWIS C. MOODY, Clerk.

J. WARD CARVER, Atty. for Libellant.
